

I'm A Wreck (But I Love You)

Greetings, happy birthday
How are you, you don't need to say
Just so you know, I didn't mean
To leave you hanging, for the tenth time today

Love is strange
It can rearrange

There's something different
In the way you look at me, is it something baby that I said
I know the air has changed
I'll just crawl back to bed

Love is strange
It can rearrange

Everything seems permanent
Yet nothing ever is X2

That we even met at all
In itself is a miracle
But young people are wrong all the time
Change plans and turn on a dime

When love get strange
You rearrange X2

I'm a wreck, but I love you
I'm a wreck, but I love you

I Am Going To Explode

You can't be bored with ADHD
And three separate screens

Plus the hum of a background radio
But I can't afford therapy, so

I haven't cried in a real long time
Except maybe a movie when a dog dies
Makes me wonder what's building inside
Nerves are shot and brain is fried

Everything is fine, and I'm living my best life
Everything is alright, except I know
I'm going to explode

I get accused of missing my mark
But I'd still know your silhouette in the dark

- CHORUS -

Explode, explode

Don't pick me up tonight
I don't want to go out
No sudden movements alright
And nothing too loud

- CHORUS - X2

-----

B Side

I never meant to make you feel like a b side
Never meant to bring you down so low
I can get lost sometimes, in my mind
I know that you know

Well I bet I'm gonna live to regret this
Yeah I bet there's no take backs these days
I really loved you so

Even though, I hardly act that way

I wish this piece that's broken
Would allow the light inside
But all many words unspoken
Just turned you into a b side

I still keep that note inside my wallet
My friends they all make fun of me man but I don't care
Cuz if I'm heading for rock bottom
I hope it's more fun down there
More fun down there

- CHORUS -

Well you said I'm gonna live to regret this
Yeah you said there's no take backs these days
I really loved you so
Even though, I hardly acted that way
Hardly acted that way

- CHORUS -

-----

Wild Heart

You always know what you want
And you're not afraid to say it
You always lay down you cards
You're not one to fake it
You never tell someone to leave
But you're never quite yourself until they're gone

You keep a special place
Tucked in your mind
Keep a bit of magic
In your pocket all the time

You follow when you want to
And only go back home when you want

You're brave from the start
You're wild in your heart
You make the world a better place
Nothing could ever replace your wild heart, wild heart

You could run this whole town
If you cared
You charm the meanest soul
With your stare
You keep away the darkness
And light up every room like a flare

- CHORUS -

-----

Good Boy

We've seen it all together
Always side by side
Across so many different lands
We've laughed until we cried

We've walked some endless miles
Ridden over every wheel
From a Chinese wagon to a New York bus
And we've slipped over every peel

So our words don't need to be spoken
Our love will never be broken

We've spoken different languages
Whispered promises and broke em
We've eaten every type of pizza crust
From Italy to Hoboken

I know we've battled side by side
In much harder lives than this
And I've held your broken body in mine

And given it a kiss

- CHORUS -

We've said goodbye so many times
So I know I shouldn't be sad
But every time that it ends
It feels the same as the last

Now in these bags we find ourselves
Quite different than the rest
I wish so bad we had a longer span
We are but short guests

- CHORUS -

Everybody thinks they have the best
Dog in the world
And nobody is wrong
I just know that I'm right

-----

Late Bloom

What do you think you're doing
Who do you think your fooling
Looks to me you're only fooling yourself

Well half of what we had is broken
The other half is smoking
It's flowing back in forth like a wave
But I never had a teacher
And I ain't never met with a preacher
So I don't think I can help you much these days

Every time you're away
Hiding out during the your days
Bumping into walls and down the stairs
I come and hold out my paw
And I act like a good dog
Pacify you somehow to show how I care

What do you think you're doing
Who do you think your fooling
Look to me you're only fooling yourself
Some seeds are late to bloom
Some good men are meant to be doomed
At least that's what I'm telling myself

- SOLO -

I hope you find a way to turn the pain
Into some value or gain
Cuz this self inflicted lonesome doesn't shine
So I leave you with the mission
With most the crew gone missing
The others are just sleeping most the time

- CHORUS -

-----

Pressing Down On The Coal

The canary in the mine just gave up and died
The shovels are all broken, walls caving in I'm trying hard, to just be happy for you
But when I see you smile it gets harder and harder to do

I'm pressing down on the coal, till it turns shiny bright
I'm pressing down on the coal, everything gonna turn out right
I'm pressing down on the coal, somehow somewhere
Pressing down on the coal, there's a diamond in there

I heard an old friend say, he'd run this town if he had the luck
Well that'll be the day, he's just flipping coins in a silver cup
His family worked real hard, to put gold in the yard
No luck so far, shoveling neath moonbeams

- CHORUS -

(F, E, Dm)

Insert town name here

Find new place to hide

It's been a long cold year

Shivering in cathedral silence

I'm always saying sorry, even when I don't mean it

You're always sleeping silent, but never side by side

Arrows at the sky, helps to keep belief in something

And the top down dries the crying, eyes straight ahead

- CHORUS -

-----

Further On

One day soon you will wake up, in a different kind of bed

And when you wake you up, you'll regret all the things you said

When you go out drinking, you'll think of me

And when you get home, I know just what you'll see

Over there by the window, where I used to lay my head

Instead of thinking bout another

You'll be crying alone instead

I'll be going

Further on down the down the line

I'm going

Bye bye bye

Wonder what you'll be wearing, will it be my favorite shoes

The same ones I saw you in, the first time I saw you

Wonder if you'll be dancing, the same dance that I saw

When I fell so deep down
I'm still crawling back up now

- CHORUS - SOLO -

Truth is that I don't even miss you, I'm just too scared to say
Cuz I don't know where in the world I'm going these days

- CHORUS - X2

Even The Losers

Well it was nearly summer, we sat on your roof
Yeah we smoked cigarettes and we stared at the moon
And I showed you stars you never could see
Babe it couldn't have been that easy to forget about me

Baby time meant nothing, everything seemed real
Yeah, you kissed like fire and you made me feel Like every word you said was meant to be
It couldn't have been that easy to forget about me

Baby, even the losers, get lucky sometimes
Even the losers, keep a little bit of pride
They get lucky sometimes

Two cars parked on the overpass
Rocks hit the water like broken glass
I shoulda known right then it was too good to last
God it's such a drag when you're living in the past

- CHORUS - X2

Another Man's Done Gone

Sometimes I think I'm gonna lose my mind
It don't look like I ever do
I loved so many people, everywhere I went
Some too much, and others not enough

Oh, I don't know, I may go
Down or up or anywhere
But I feel
Like these scribblings might stay

Maybe if I hadn't have seen so much hard feelings
I might not could've felt other people's
So when you think of me, if and when you do
Just say, "Well, another man's done gone"
"Well, another man's done gone"

-----

Black and Tan

Well the people round here don't understand me
I think it's cuz I mumble and sway
They just nod and they offer me pity
Before they stand up and walk away

But I've hunted fox with royalty
With kings and princes too
I ain't looking for no praise
I was just doing I was told to do

I've dug through piles of rubble
To find survivors and wounded vets
I've pulled families on sleds at the end of the world
And I've even been a little girls pet

So sit and listen closely
And I'll teach you as best I can

The secrets of the cosmos
For a black and tan

Humans they are funny creatures
They have these secretes lies and schemes
I just wanna curl up with a family who loves me
Yeah that's my dream

- CHORUS -
The people around here call me
Mr. Black and Tan
